

- as this cell "runs"
- the Cu electrode grows (gets heavier)
- the Zn electrode shrinks (gets lighter)
- $\text{NO}_3^-$  ions must flow through the "salt bridge" to prevent charge build up in each solution (completes the circuit)