Good Morning All:

I hope this email finds you well

So far I have had a very busy day. This on-line learning thing does have its challenges!

PLEASE REPLY TO THIS EMAIL - I want to know who is receiving and who is not.

Based on my ability to view the usage of my website, it would appear that there was no significant effort put into the thermodynamics unit. This is very understandable. There is one item in this unit you will need in order to carry forward. I have updated thermodynamic page on the website with some instructions and I have highlighted the key ideas in pink. You will find this difficult and it will take some persistence to figure it out. PLEASE EMAIL QUESTIONS

Good Luck

Mr. Schlenker
