Good Morning All:

Please check in: <https://forms.office.com/Pages/ResponsePage.aspx?id=GAmPRLReCU2WCd35yhGvQsuodiaVPQJHoMguHaAhWSBUNkFUMEpPN0FYR0IFVFBFN0NHOEczRTdTWiQIQCN0PWcu>

I am working on a video for the next unit. I should have it up and going by noon. I will email again once I do. It will be in the equilibrium unit! I want to get a start, because there is always a lot in this course. The equilibrium is a brand new thing. You can do a lot of chemistry without it, but you must consider it in many things. Biology, in particular is almost all equilibrium reactions.

If you want to wait until Tuesday, that would be fine. It will just be a bit more for you on Tuesday.

Beauty on on-line learning, you can pause the video!

Have a great day and an even better weekend. I will likely not mark your reports today, but I will get to them soon.

Mr. Schlenker
